

Community Services For The Developmentally Disabled

As a Direct Support Professional, you will assist people with developmental disabilities fulfill their dreams by helping them set and achieve goals. One will teach important life skills and encourage the people they support to be as independent as possible. In some cases, assisting with medication delivery is needed. Full and Part Time positions are available. Various work schedules - day, evening, overnight and weekend shifts are available throughout Western New York. Candidates must possess a High School Diploma or GED and a valid NYS Driver's License.

- Competitive starting pay of $11.72 per hour
- Excellent benefits and paid time off
- A team oriented work environment
- Flexibility for a good work and life balance
- A chance to make difference
- A great career path with opportunity to grow