

Director of Training and Clinical Innovation Buffalo, NY

The Director of Training and Clinical Innovation is responsible for the development, coordination, and oversight of training programs and clinical initiatives at BestSelf Behavioral Health. The Director will assist in the implementation of new training and clinical initiatives and work closely with other departments to ensure identified training needs are met. The Director will supervise clinical trainers within the training department.

The Director Training and Clinical Innovation must be a licensed behavioral healthcare professional (Nurse, Social Worker, Mental Health counselor, etc.) LCSW or LMHC preferred. Knowledge of and experience with the treatment of psychiatric illnesses and their treatment is necessary, as is knowledge of evidence-based practices and training initiatives. A minimum of 5 years experience working in a New York State Office of Mental Health licensed program. A minimum of 2 years in a supervisory role.

Please email cover letter and resume to
rmancone@bestselfwny.org
by April 13th!!

