

The Cantalician Center for Learning provides quality services to children & adults with a wide range of disabilities in various settings.

The following position is available in our Employment Services Setting:

Job Coach

Job Location: Buffalo, NY

Job Level: Entry Level (less than 2 yrs)

Level of Education: High School/GED

Job Type: Full-Time/Regular

Years of Experience: N/A

Starting Date: ASAP

The Job Coach provides quality services and supports provided both on the job and offsite which result in job performance success, building quality relationships at work, fitting into the work culture, accessing natural supports, and job retention.

Skills & Abilities:

- High level of written and oral communication skills
- High level of interpersonal skills
- Knowledge of computer and ability to utilize word processing programs, preferred
- Possess good time management skills
- Successful completion and certification of First Aid and CPR training, provided upon hire
- Ability to work independently within the community

Education & Training:

Preferred: Associates Degree plus two years experience in production or manufacturing, and/or work with the developmentally disabled population.

Minimum: High School Diploma or Equivalency.

Valid New York State driver's license in good standing, New York automobile insurance, and a reliable motor vehicle required

We offer a friendly work atmosphere and an excellent benefits package!

The Cantalician Center for Learning provides quality services to children & adults with a wide range of disabilities in various settings.

To learn more about us and the positions that are available, visit

www.CantalicianCenter.org

The following position is available in our Employment Services Setting:

Direct Support Professional

Job Location: Buffalo, NY

Job Level: Entry Level (less than 2 yrs)

Level of Education: High School/GED

Job Type: Full-Time/Regular AND Substitute

Years of Experience: N/A

Starting Date: ASAP

The Direct Support Professional Substitute-ES adheres to the Code of Ethics, demonstrating the core competencies; assists individuals receiving services in acquiring and/or maintaining the skills, personal habits and positive attitudes that will enable them to maintain and/or enhance their independence with a primary focus on employment skills.

Skills & Abilities:

- Possess good time management skills
- Ability and desire to work as part of an interdisciplinary team
- Ability to work independently with a group of individuals
- Moderate level of written and oral communication skills
- Moderate level of interpersonal skills
- Knowledge of behavioral techniques and developmental disabilities to assist in the care of individuals receiving services
- Knowledge of computer and ability to utilize various software programs
- Successful completion and certification of First Aid and CPR upon hire is required

Education & Training:

Preferred: One year pertinent experience in Health and Human Services related field and experience with individuals with disabilities.

Minimum: High School Diploma or Equivalency.

Valid New York State driver's license in good standing, New York automobile insurance, and a reliable motor vehicle required

We offer a friendly work atmosphere and an excellent benefits package!

To learn more about us and the positions that are available, visit

www.CantalicianCenter.org

The Cantalician Center for Learning provides quality services to children & adults with a wide range of disabilities in various settings.

The following position is available in our Employment Services Setting:

Pathways Specialist

Job Location: Buffalo, NY

Job Level: Entry to Mid (3-5 years)

Level of Education: Bachelor's Degree

Job Type: Full-Time/Regular

Years of Experience: 3

Starting Date: ASAP

The Pathway Specialist implements Pathway to Employment, and other related employment programming, and provides supervision to individuals receiving services ("individuals") in a community-based work setting.

Skills & Abilities:

- High level of written and oral communication skills
- High level of interpersonal skills
- Good organizational skills
- Knowledge of behavioral techniques and developmental disabilities to assist in the care of individuals receiving services
- Knowledge of computer and ability to utilize word processing programs
- Possess good time management skills
- Ability and desire to work as part of an interdisciplinary team
- Ability to work independently within the community
- Familiarity with applicable standardized/non-standardized tests and assessment tools
- Knowledge of current literature and trends related to the profession
- First Aid and CPR training will be provided upon hire

Education & Training:

Minimum: Bachelor's Degree in Social Work, Psychology, Rehabilitation Counseling, Special Education or other closely related developmental disabilities field, PLUS three years full-time paid direct service experience with developmentally disabled adults.

Valid New York State driver's license in good standing, New York automobile insurance, and a reliable motor vehicle required.

We offer a friendly work atmosphere and an excellent benefits package!

To learn more about us and the positions that are available, visit

www.CantalicianCenter.org

The Cantalician Center for Learning provides quality services to children & adults with a wide range of disabilities in various settings.

The following position is available in our Employment Services Setting:

Coordinator of Supported Employment

Job Location: Buffalo, NY

Job Level: Management Level

Level of Education: Bachelor's Degree

Job Type: Full-Time/Regular

Years of Experience: 5 and up

Starting Date: ASAP

The Coordinator of Supported Employment (SEMP) is responsible for overseeing and supervising all activities related to OPWDD SEMP and ACCES-VR services. Ensuring that the services are properly developed, implemented and executed in alignment with agency's mission and goals.

Skills & Abilities:

- Strong organizational skills
- Ability to work independently
- Strong written and oral communication skills
- Ability to work as part of a multi-disciplinary team
- A sufficient level of skills, training, and knowledge in supported employment service delivery techniques
- Experience in teaching or training others
- Experience in developing instructional plans
- Knowledge and understanding of employee incentive and tax credits

Education & Training:

Preferred: Highly qualified individual who has expertise in supported employment service delivery for persons with disabilities. Master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling, Special Education, or related human services field; three years of direct service experience with the disabled population and two years of supervisory experience.

Minimum: Bachelor's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling, Special Education, or related human services field with five years paid direct service experience with the disabled population; and two years of supervisory experience.

Valid New York State driver's license, New York Automobile Insurance, registered reliable motor vehicle required

We offer a friendly work atmosphere and an excellent benefits package!

To learn more about us and the positions that are available, visit

www.CantalicianCenter.org