

Buffalo Employment and Training Center

If you've been laid off, or if your business has been affected by COVID-19, also known as Coronavirus, related safety measures-related safety measures, we are here to help.

CALL 856-5627 OR REGISTER FOR EMPLOYMENT SERVICES HERE

<http://www.buffalony.gov/jobs>

The Buffalo Employment and Training Center is your community partner to connect qualified and job-ready candidates to employment opportunities in WNY.

We are proud to partner with Mayor Byron W. Brown and the City of Buffalo's continued efforts to ensure the welfare of Buffalo residents and business owners.

Although some businesses have closed, others are experiencing a labor shortage. The BETC continues to provide career and referral services to our customers. We welcome inquiries from all Western New York job-seekers and employers.

Please note: the BETC has established a virtual office! Access to job counselors are available via telephone at 716.856.5627 and via video conferencing from 8:30am to 5:00pm